Dear Parents and Guardians,

We started a new writing mini unit that the students have been enjoying so far. We are focusing on how authors use figurative language to help add description and excitement to their writing. So far we have discussed similes and metaphors. We will also discuss personification, onomatopoeia, and alliteration next week. The students will use this knowledge to help them write a descriptive piece about a holiday craft they will be making next week. I am excited to see their final products!

You can help at home by discussing the different types of figurative language with your child and by pointing it out when you are reading together.

Please feel free to contact me with any comments, questions or concerns you may have regarding your child at 613-5749 or julie.elliott@thompsonschoools.org.

Sincerely,
Julie Elliott
